Education, Schools, Superintendent |

“State Schools Superintendent Tom Torlakson on Wednesday bestowed Gold Ribbon Awards on 772 elementary schools, including 44 in L.A. Unified, in recognition of their success in implementing academic content and performance standards.

The Gold Ribbon Award temporarily replaces the California Distinguished Schools Program, which is on hiatus while California creates new assessment and accountability systems. Nearly 6,000 elementary schools were eligible to apply this year.

The schools recognized in L.A. Unified include traditional campuses, magnets, affiliated and District-authorized charters, and pilot schools.”
